

CAPN Mission statement:

To protect and promote the health of Canadian children through advancing the professional specialty of Paediatric Nursing, through education and learning for nurses, and advocacy locally and nationally for the well-being of children.